Pray for us!

Happy 150th Canada!

"IF MY PEOPLE, which are called by My Name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek My Face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land." — 2 Chronicles 7:14

INCARNATE CANADA

(by Michael Swain, Catholic Register)

... The truth about Canada is the truth of the incarnation. God is here, in the flesh, among us ... As the Bishops collectively reconsecrate this nation to Mary on July 1st, they entrust us to a Mother who is also the Theotokos — "God carrier." The act isn't sentimental or nostalgic.
When we claim Mary, we claim the concrete and deeply human reality of Christ Who was born from her womb to redeem us here and now in our world.

To travel in Canada is to discover yourself in the world which Christ has redeemed. From the Great Lakes to the high Arctic, this country encompasses an enormous slice of creation.

In [Zechariah's] song of celebration for both his son and for the coming incarnation of God, Zechariah heralds God's constant offer of communion. With his son John the Baptist in his arms, he recognized "the mercy promised to our ancestors ... to grant us that we, being rescued from the hands of our enemies, might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all our days."

Zechariah addresses his son and all of us, Christ's cousins through the centuries — "And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Most High. For you will go before the Lord to prepare his ways, to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the forgiveness of their sins, by the tender mercy of our God."

There is no photographer alive who can capture God's mercy in the landscape of any country. But I have been lucky enough to be there when this land has whispered hints of communion and mercy into my camera. From sea to sea to sea, here is where in Canada I have witnessed God's great invitation —
