14th Major Council — Second Council of Lyons
In 1274, Blessed Pope Gregory X called the Second Council of Lyons which teemed with 15 cardinals, 500 prelates and well over a thousand clerics and dignitaries including Saint Bonaventure. Another great Doctor of the Church, Saint Thomas Aquinas, passed to his Heavenly reward enroute to the Council. This Council's main docket was the attempt to reunite with the Eastern Church, but it was only temporary and the schism grew wider after the solidification of the Dogmatic Filioque in which it was reaffirmed emphatically that the Holy Ghost proceeds from both the Father and the Son. Also addressed were regulations for Papal election and how to recover Palestine from the Turks.

15th Major Council — The Council of Vienne
Six years into the 'Avignon Exile' (1305-1377), the Council of Vienne lasted two years. It was called in 1311 by the first of the Avignon Popes, Pope Clement V, in the city of Vienne just south of Lyons. Though the Patriarchs of Antioch and Alexandria joined the Pope, it was a noticeable difference from the last Council for far fewer bishops and dignitaries attended. Nevertheless, the council suppressed the Knights Templars and Jacques de Molay, the one who laid the satanic seeds of Freemasonry. They had abused their privileges after the Crusades. Politics also played a huge role in this council with King Philip IV, ruler of France, being reinstated into the Church after his legendary excommunication battle with Pope Clement's predecessor, Pope Boniface VIII, who had issued his famous ex cathedra bull Unam Sanctam. The Council also condemned various heresies.

For Priests and their Pastoral Ministry: That priests, who experience fatigue and loneliness in their pastoral work, may find help and comfort in their intimacy with the Lord and in their friendship with their brother priests.

ST. THÉRÈSE OF LISEUX — PERPETUAL NOVENA

We continue to pray for parishioners and their families.

O Little Thérèse of the Child Jesus, please pick for me a rose from the heavenly garden and send it to me as a message of love.

O Little Flower of Jesus, ask God to grant the favours I now place with confidence in your hands.

June 29 – July 7: St. Thérèse, please pray for all children who were, or will be baptised this year at Blessed Sacrament. Please pray that their parents and Godparents will continue to grow closer to the Lord as they lead these children to Him.

July 8 – 16: Little Flower, please pray for all married couples of our parish that God will bless their marriages to serve as a light to other married couples.

St. Thérèse, help me to always believe as you did in God's great love for me, so that I may imitate your "Little Way" each day. AMEN!
